List Building Rules

This is a 200-point event.

The fireteam may only select two of any single profile card. For example, you may take two Spartan Brawlers with a Needler and two Spartan Brawlers with a Bullpup Shotgun. However, you would not be allowed to use four Brawlers with a Needler.

You may not mix factions, and all items or weapons must be represented by cards or tokens on the character stat cards.

Event Rules

Each player must bring enough tokens and dice for their games, as these will not be provided.

The full Recon table will not be used in this event. Instead, each player will roll one D8 die, player with the highest roll going first. Deployment then continues as normal.

Unless overruled by the event organiser, all rules and FAQs released by Mantic Games apply. Any rules on the Halo: FlashPoint app take priority over the physical rulebook unless stated otherwise.

The terrain and maps will be laid out by the event organiser. Weapons and Items will also be pre laid out to save time during your game. They will be randomised on each table.

All the game scenarios will be played using the organised play rules as published on the Halo flashpoint app.

When making an attacks, you must tell the defender what abilities or dice you are using. The defender must then do the same. Then roll attack and defence dice as normal.

Scoring

All scenarios are scored using the following system:

Victory Points – up to 18

Achievements – up to 11

Win +10 / Draw +5 / Loss +2

This means the max score per game is 39 points. This combined score will be your game score, Known as Tournament Points.

VP +ACH + W/L/D = Score
